SUMMARY

Computer science graduate with a strong focus on full-stack software development. Possessing a solid academic background and a deep passion for these domains. Demonstrating proficient programming skills in JavaScript, I am eager to kickstart my tech career. With extensive expertise in React and Node.js, I am able to craft interactive front-end components and robust server-side solutions. Collaborative, adaptable, and a quick learner, I bring value to any team by delivering end-to-end solutions in the dynamic web development landscape. Excited to embark on new ventures and continue expanding my knowledge in these technologies.
